BI Conduct in Wiretap

day will begin considering comment. day will begin considering whether FBI agents obstructed justice in failing to confiscate an illegal wiretapping device they discovered Richmond police using earlier this year, sources said yester. this year, sources said yesterday.

conducting the 'inquiry, de- the source said. clined comment. Cummings

A Justice Department offi-procedure, the agents who distion with the wiretap, althat the wiretapping occurred cial would confirm only that covered the wiretap should though some officers are and said, if it did, it was withan investigation into allegative device and reported the have been subpoenaed for the an investigation into allegation into allegati

By Bill McAllister

Washington Post Staff Writer

A federal grand jury Mon
A federal grand jury Mon
A federal grand jury Montorney general's office and be discuss the matter further.

Wiretapping is permissible said the Bureau had investi- ping.

"less than complete."

No Richmond police officers non will until after the grand Under Justice Department have been charged in connecjury." He refused to confirm.

wiretap to Cummings' office as a violation of federal law.

Both an FBI spokesman and U. S. Attorney William B. Cummings, whose office is conducting the 'inquiry. de-the source said.

Wiretap to Cummings' office Richmond grand jury.

James Decker, special agent in that's and would not without the proper authority," he said.

To the source said they removed it from the charge of the Richmond Duling said he planned to appear before the grand jury to device back to the policemen, for comment yesterday, but stress the department's disappear before the grand jury to stress the department's disappear before the grand jury to stress the department's disappear before the grand jury to stress the department's disappear before the grand jury to stress the department's disappear before the grand jury to stress the department's disappear before the grand jury to stress the department's disappear before the grand jury to stress the department's disappear before the grand jury to stress the department's disappear before the grand jury to stress the department's disappear before the grand jury to stress the department's disappear before the grand jury to stress the department's disappear before the grand jury to stress the department's disappear before the grand jury to stress the department's disappear before the grand jury to stress the department's disappear before the grand jury to stress the department's disappear before the grand jury to stress the grand j his assistant, L. G. Brockman, proval of any illegal wivetap-